Jim,

I would like to stick with the 20th. Let's talk about the agenda. Perhaps we can include a short discussion on 2RI and 4WP comments. I am available tomorrow until about 1PM ET. Then start traveling to Atlanta.

Thanks,

Subject: Detroit Meeting 2/20-2/21

Gary,

I turns out I will not be available for a pre-meeting conference call on 2/19. Also, I need to make my flight arrangements as well as let my team know so they can reschedule their plans. I know we discussed a one-day meeting. One possibility to consider would be to have the meeting on 2/21 and maybe have a call on 2/20 if that would help. However, my team is able to make either 2/20 or 2/21. Just wanted to let you know we have flexibility on that end.

Please let me know when you get the exact day confirmed. However, if you still believe we need to meet on both days or 1 1/2 days, that will work, just let me know.

thanks
Jim Saric
